

Smith-Kingsmore Syndrome

Hello! The guide below identifies the time points at which each topic from the 2021 SKS Foundation Family Conference begins. Please feel free to watch the full recording or skip to certain topics depending on what you need.

You can access the conference here:

<https://www.dropbox.com/s/vieii4xd7wdcym8/SKS%20Foundation%20Family%20Conference%20October%202021.mp4?dl=0>

| Video Time Point | Speaker(s)                               | Title of Talk   |
|-------------------------|---|--|
| 0:00-19:54              | Carlos Prada, MD                                | Smith Kingsmore Syndrome Natural History Update  |
| 20:45-59:00             | Andrew Liu, PhDJohn Hogenesch, PhD          | How different are these SKS variants?  |
| 59:00-1:56:22           | Amelle Shillington, DOMartine Lamy, MD, PhD | Psychiatric Treatment Modalities for Neurobehavioral Comorbidities of Smith Kingsmore Syndrome |
| 1:59:30-2:20:20         | David Smith, MD, PhD,FACS, FAAP             | The Circadian Clock, Sleep, and Treatment Practices  |
| 2:20:20-2:59:18         | Thomas J. Dye, MD                               | Sleep Evaluation and Pharmacology  |
| 3:00:54-4:01:20         | Darcy Krueger, MD, PhD                          | Smith Kingsmore Syndrome: What about seizures?   |
| 4:01:20-4:20:00         | Kristen GrosecloseSKSF President            | Smith-Kingsmore Syndrome Foundation Updates  |
| 4:20:00 -4:40:24        | All Speakers                                    | Wrap-Up and Final Questions  |